

SMITH VALLIERE NAMED NEW YORK CITY'S
BOUTIQUE LAW FIRM OF THE YEAR
FOR 2015
BY SmartCEO MAGAZINE

New York, NY, June 22, 2015. SmartCEO magazine honored Smith Valliere PLLC with its prestigious Law Firm of the Year Award to recognize the firm's success as a boutique litigation firm in the New York City market.

"The Firm is truly honored to receive such a prestigious award," founding partner Mark W. Smith said. "SmartCEO magazine caters to such an impressive list of chief executive officers and C-suite executives that we are thrilled to receive this recognition, especially given the impressive number and quality of the nominees for this year's award."

Over two hundred business executives, accountants, attorneys, and friends gathered to honor some of New York's top professionals for their leadership, accomplishments, and success. The winners were determined to have had an outstanding impact on their clients' businesses.

SmartCEO magazine is a bimonthly publication with offices in New York City, catering to CEOs and other executives by providing advice, opinions and information to growth-oriented mid-market companies. SmartCEO awards one Law Firm of the Year honor in New York each year in the small firm and large firm categories. Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP was named Law Firm of Year in the large firm category. These annual awards celebrate the achievements of New York's top attorneys and accountants for their leadership, innovation, and dedication to their clients' success.

During his acceptance speech, Smith addressed the inherent risks and unpredictability of today's litigation environment for all business owners and individuals.

About Smith Valliere PLLC

Smith Valliere PLLC is a premier New York City-based law firm, located at the Rockefeller Center complex, focusing primarily on complex commercial litigation and high profile business and other disputes. New York Times bestselling author and attorney Mark W. Smith founded the firm in 2007 along with his NYU Law School classmate and Rhodes Scholar finalist Tim Valliere.

Contact: Mark Maciuch, Communications, Smith Valliere PLLC
(212) 755-5200 or mmaciuch@svlaw.com